'77'

RANK BY RANK, THY SONS AND DAUGHTERS,
COME FROM CORNERS WIDE,
SAFELY DONE WITH THIS FIRST MEASURE,
STAND TODAY WITH PRIDE.
OH GRAHM WE LIFT THY GLEAMING BANNER,
SING THY TRIUMPH CLEAR.
AS WE JOIN THE GROWING NUMBER,
BOUND BY FRIENDSHIP DEAR.
GRAHM, WE CHERISH EVERY MEMORY,
OF OUR SPORT AND GLEE,
MOST OF ALL RECALL THY STRENGTH,
OF COURAGE, CHARITY.
AND SHOULD THE WORLDLY RULERS FALTER,
MAY OUR COLLEGE WAVER NEVER IN SINCERITY.

To The Class of 1977

In the 26-year history of Graham Junior College, you are surely the unique graduating class, having acquired a knowledge that will last you a lifetime.

I speak not of a knowledge of forms of words, formulae, or techniques of broadcasting — but of people, places, actions — a knowledge not gained from textbooks, but by touch, sight, sound, victory, failures, sleeplessness, hunger, devotion, love, and the human experiences of earth and of one's self and of other men and women — and perhaps too, a little reverence for the things you cannot see.

Never forget what we shared together for, in the perspective of time, it will stand as one of life's most meaningful experiences.

To have served as your President, for even a short while, has been an honor.

Len Singer

President

Hard-covered books break up friendships. You loan a hard-covered book to a friend and when he doesn't return it you get mad at him. We kept that in mind when we created the 1977 yearbook!

Many students are probably wondering why the 1977 yearbook has a soft cover and is 84 pages. Well, due to the financial crisis here at Graham; the money allotted to the yearbook had to be used and in the beginning of March it looked as though we weren't going to have a book. But, too much time and effort was already put into the publication of the book and the yearbook staff wasn't going to give up. So, as a collective body, we worked very hard to raise the money needed for the publication of a so called "compact yearbook." Our success not only came from within the staff, but, also, from many students in the Graham Community.

We, the editors, thank the yearbook staff, all those people who purchased a book, and the two organizations that donated money to the cause, The Student Concerns Committee and Chi Sigma Beta.

The 1977 Yearbook captured many events that happened within the past year. We hope the book fills you up with many happy memories.

Your friends are your needs answered.
 They are your field which you sow with love and reap with thanksgiving.
 And they are your board and your fireside.
 For you come to them with you hunger, and you seek them for peace.

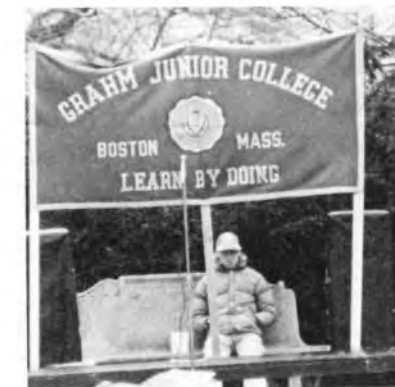

— Kahlil Gibran

Through every stage of life people need other people. It's great to know that you can lean on your friends for support, comfort, and peace of mind. This academic year here at Grahm, 1976-77, many people counted on Micki Dickoff and Dean Gaine for that support, comfort, and peace of mind. These two special people stuck by us in hard times and good times while we struggled to keep Grahm open. They not only made this school year possible, but, also, made the 1977 yearbook a reality.

With honor, the 1977 Yearbook is proudly dedicated to Michele Dickoff and Dean William Gaine for their sincere devotion to all the Students in the Grahm Community.

To my family at Grahm,
As this school year ends and has allowed us to make new friends and a new beginning for ourselves, should we have to say good-bye to a school that has brought many people from near and far?
I believe we don't have to say good-bye at all, instead make a promise to me that you will keep your door open. Stay in touch with each other. Communicate and cherish the memories we've shared together. Be thankful for the knowledge we've gained.
Take care Keep Smiling
And from this day forward may everyday be a happy one.

Love,

Janina
